Monday, November 9: Sioux Center Christian School invites you to our Fall Choral Concert at 6:30pm in the Blazer Center. Our 5th/6th grade and 7th/8th grade choirs will be lifting their voices in praise through a variety of songs. Freewill donations in support of our Music Dept may be placed in boxes by the doors or given online. You may also enjoy the livestream or recording of the concert at siouxcenterchristian.com > Current Families > Livestream

Monday, November 9: The community is invited to attend a lecture by Dr. N. Gray Sutanto, associate professor of systematic theology at Reformed Theological Seminary in Washington, D.C. The lecture, "What Does It Mean to Be Human? Herman Bavinck and Anthropology," will be held in the Overlook, located in the Campus Center at Dordt University at 7:30pm. The lecture will seek to address the question, “What is humanity?”. In an age of AI, there is perhaps no more pressing question than this today. Drawing from his new book on a biblical account of humanity (For Us and Our Salvation) and the work of Herman Bavinck, this lecture retrieves a theology of the image of God that highlights human uniqueness and embodiment from the Reformed tradition.

Tuesday, November 10: You are invited to Unity Christian High School for their chapel honoring veterans at 9:55am in the Unity Christian Knight Center. Veterans may dress in uniform and will be honored. Veterans and students will participate in this celebration to honor the men and women who have served and are serving in the protection of our country.

Tuesday, November 10: The Northwest Iowa Symphony Orchestra (NISO) invites the community to its fall concert, “Passion, Poetry, and Power,” at 7:30pm in the BJ Haan Auditorium at Dordt University. The concert will feature a dynamic program of orchestral works, including Mikhail Glinka’s Russlan and Ludmilla Overture, Florence Price’s Violin Concerto No. 2, featuring guest soloist and Dordt University alumna Erika Hoogeveen on violin, and Alexander Borodin’s Symphony No. 2. Adult general admission tickets are $25, and student admission is free. For tickets and additional information, visit www.dordt.edu/niso.

Wednesday, November 11: Sioux Center Christian School will be hosting a Veterans Day assembly at 1:35pm in the Blazer Center. All community veterans and their family members are invited to join us as we honor and express gratitude for your service! Please feel free to spread the word to any local veterans. We look forward to recognizing and celebrating you!

Thursday, November 12: Join us for Hull Christian School’s Annual Soup Supper from 5:00–7:00pm in the gym! Enjoy a warm bowl of chili, vegetable beef, chicken noodle, or pea soup, along with tavern or creamed chicken buns and delicious homemade desserts. Free-will donation. Bring your family, invite your friends, and come hungry! Thank you for supporting Hull Christian School!

Thursday & Friday, November 12 & 13: Join us for combo nights of Theater and Art at 7pm in the Knight Center. Unity Christian HS Theater presents a two-act comedy play titled "Whodunit... and to Whom?" It’s a wild adventure of Harold Finnegan writing a third-rate detective story on his typewriter. As he writes, we see the actions from his characters played out by actors on stage. Unity student artwork will be featured in the courtyard for these evenings. Tickets available on Bound ($10/adult, $8/K-12 students).

Friday, November 13: You are invited to join the Dordt University Music Department at 3:10pm for the first Department Recital of the semester. The recital will be in the Dean Recital Hall and will feature students from vocal, instrumental and keyboard departments. The recital is free and open to the public.
